Aria.

Chapter 1 by Neffaa.

Chapter 1.

Aria.

They called the world beyond the walls of the pod "the Death shop." A million ways to die out there. Aria never thought she'd get so close.

She bit her lip as she stared at the heavy steel door in front of her. A display screen read: "Agriculture 6 -- No Entry" in flashing red letters.

Ag 6 was just a service dome, Aria told herself. Dozens of domes supplied Reverie with food, water, oxygen -- all of the things an enclosed city needed. Ag 6 had been damaged in a recent storm but supposedly the damage was minor. Supposedly.

"Maybe we should turn back," Paisley said. She stood beside Aria in the airlock chamber, nervously twitsing a strand of her long red hair.

The three boys crouched at the control board by the door, jamming the signal so they could exit without triggering an alarm. Aria tried to ignore their steady bickering.

"It's just another part of Reverie." Aria said.

"An off-limits part."

"pais, you don't have to go."

"Neither do you," Paisley said, but she was wrong.

For the past five days, Aria had worried constantly about her mother. Why hadn't she been in touch? Lumina had never missed one of their daily visits, no matter how engrossed she was in her medical research. If Aria wanted answers, she needed to get into that dome.

Chapter 2 by Jarno

As the three boys fiddled with the board panel whilst trying to disarm the system.

"Easy!" One of them said.

The second boy pulled a screwdriver out of his pocket and started on the 9 inch nails stuck inside the panel.

The third boy wasn't really there for anything.

"Maybe for encouragement." Aria thought as she chuckled.

The sound of nails hitting the floor sounded like bricks falling from a building and hitting the ground at a 50 miles an hour velocity.

The quiet room filled with sighs.

"How long is this going to take?!" Paisley said, clearly annoyed.

"Shut up! It's almost done! I got this!" Said the first boy.

5 minutes of silence followed.

Then a sudden gasp from one of the boys.

"I messed it up. We need to go!"

"I hear no alarm what are you talking about?" Said Paisley.

Suddenly a loud ringing noise started coming out of the speakers.

"Bollocks!" Said the third boy.

Aria was panicking and starting thinking about how much trouble they'd be in, but suddenly the door opened, very slowly.
